

DOCUMENTARY REPORT

TITLE:

TIME PERIOD:

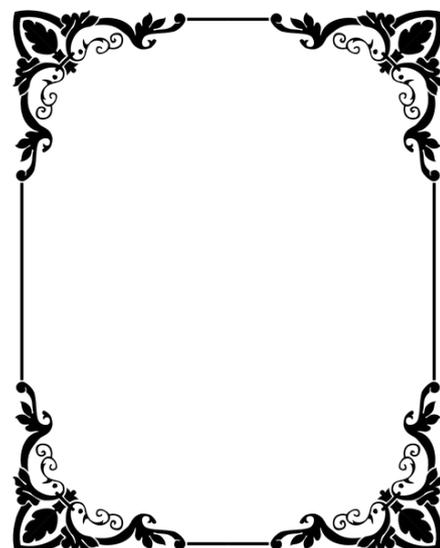

YEAR:

KEY FIGURES & PERSPECTIVES

1. Who are the main historical figures or voices presented?
2. Are multiple perspectives included? Whose voices are missing?
3. Does the documentary portray anyone as a hero, villain, or victim? Why?

SETTING: includes geographical location AND time period

1. Where and when does the documentary take place?
2. What historical events or people are central to this documentary?
3. Does the documentary feel objective, persuasive, or interpretive? Explain.

Draw a key figure

Style:

- Were reenactments, interviews, narration, or archival footage used? How did they help tell the story?
- Did any scenes feel emotionally persuasive or biased?

What is the main focus in the documentary?

- Political
- Social
- Moral/Ethical
- Scientific
- Cultural
- Religious

HISTORICAL ANALYSIS

- What facts did you learn that were new or surprising?
- Did anything make you question what you previously believed?
- Do you think the documentary was balanced or one-sided?

The Nurtured Bee

RECOMMENDATION:

Would you recommend this documentary to someone else? Who and why?

REFLECT:

What part of the documentary impacted you the most, and why?

What did you learn about the world, about people, or about yourself, by watching this?

While watching, did any particular biblical principles come to mind? If so, what?

DID YOU ENJOY THE DOCUMENTARY?

 — — —

NOT GOOD

INCREDIBLE